KUDOS, KICKS & KARATS

TO THE PEOPLE OF WARREN:

On behalf of myself and the crew of the USS Salomonie AO-26 we wish to thank each and everyone who made us feel at home and honored us in the parade by standing, saluting, waving and showing your patriotism for all who have served and for all who made the supreme sacrifice on your behalf for freedom.

Thank you and God bless.

THANK YOU ANGEL FOOD MINISTRIES VOLUNTEERS

This was our 5th month and we are still learning. We make changes every time trying to get things to run more smoothly and we are getting there. I want to THANK all of volunteers for helping each month. The regulars keep coming back and we always get a new one or two. We have added a couple of new stations. We now have traffic controllers. This really helps to keep the traffic moving and all moving in the same direction. Also, we have added a refreshment center and a light lunch is being offered to all the volunteers. We had visitors from Indianapolis this time and they were amazed how fast and efficiently things moved. Even the truck driver is happy with the way we get the truck unloaded and in the building so quickly. THANKS, Mike Haggerty, and DeWeeses.

THANKS AGAIN.

BIRTHDAY THANKS

Thanks to all who came to my 80th party, for the cards and gifts. It was a very special day. Thanks to all our kids, Jo, Carol, Jim, Gloria and Rex who planned it.

Susie (Jacobs) Shadle

A HUGE THANK YOU

This letter is a thank you note to the kind man in the green pickup truck that saved me from the four attacking dogs as I ran along Belleville Road on July 21. I am convinced the holes in my shorts would have contained huge hunks of flesh if you had not backed up to scare off the dogs. Thank you so much for noticing my situation in your rear view mirror. It is people like you that help me to continue to believe that overall mankind is good.

THE UPTOWN GARDENER

by Ruth Herring

I send you all greetings from my overgrown garden. If I don't get out there soon I may not find my way thru it. The potatoes are blooming good and getting really tall, just hope there is some potatoes under those huge plants. Been picking green beans and they surely do taste good. The tomatoes are starting to ripen and the cherry tomatoes I kept over the winter I set out in the pots and have taken off again and are full of new tomatoes and bloom. The other tomato plants are huge this year and crowding out the pepper plants. Hope I can keep them separated. Need those red and green peppers for the Governor Sauce I make for the market and our family use.

BLOOD SHORTAGE

The Indiana-Ohio Region of the American Red Cross is facing very low blood levels and is struggling to fulfill the requests of local hospitals. The morning began with six of the eight blood types below minimum inventory standards. Currently there is just a half-day supply of blood types O-negative and A-negative, and a one-day supply or less of types O-positive and B-negative. In order to meet the needs of patients in more than 60 local hospitals, the Region should maintain a minimum three-day supply of all eight blood types.

With the need for blood surpassing those who are coming to donate, the Red Cross wants to be prepared. In the summer it becomes more difficult to reach blood donors with schools not in session and families traveling on vacation.

Neighboring Red Cross Regions in Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, Lansing, and Toledo are also experiencing low blood supply levels. This causes concern since these Regions are often called upon when the Indiana-Ohio Region needs assistance.

"It is important that we have blood available to meet the needs of our local hospitals at any given time. We also need to be ready for any situations that may arise. When blood levels decrease like we are experiencing, it becomes difficult to continue to be prepared," states Sharyn Whitman, CEO of the Indiana-Ohio Blood Services Region of the American Red Cross.

Eligible blood donors are asked to call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE to find a convenient blood drive location. Blood donors must be at least 17 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health and present a valid state-issued

FESTIVAL HELP

Do you like to help others; while and have a lot of fun at the same time? If you do, then you are the perfect volunteer to help with Ouabache State Park's Fall Festival Weekend, Oct. 24-25.

Ouabache's Fall Festival Weekend is the perfect opportunity for individuals and families to enjoy the fall weather, and to participate in a variety of events in a safe environment.

Volunteers, age 16 and older, are needed to assist with fun games, the potluck soup, and decorating the campview shelter. Additional volunteer opportunities are available.

To volunteer or for more information, call (260) 824-0926 between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., or e-mail OuabacheInterp@dnr.IN.gov.

Ouabache State Park is located at 4930 East State Road 201, Bluffton, Ind. 46714.

LEAVE NO TRACE

You can find out what it means to "walk gently upon the Earth" by joining Bill Houk for a "Leave No Trace" workshop at 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 2, at the Rustic Oak Shelter.

Houk is a Master Educator who volunteers to lead workshops about how to leave no trace, throughout Indiana and the Midwest. He will be using games, demonstrations, and hands-on activities to help participants learn seven important "Leave No Trace" principles.

The program is free and designed to assist outdoor enthusiasts and groups with making decisions about how to reduce their impacts when they are in the out-of-doors.

According to the park's interpretive naturalist Kate Curless, this is an educational and ethical program, and not a set of rules and regulations.

"It's a tremendous workshop for everyone interested in learning how to minimize their impact on Indiana's State Parks and Reservoirs," Curless said.

For more information about the Leave No Trace program, go to www.LNT.org.

The event is free after paying the standard gate fee of $5 for in-state and $7 for out-of-state vehicles.

Limited parking is available at the Rustic Oak Shelter. Additional parking is available nearby.

For more information call (260) 824-0926 or e-mail OuabacheInterp@dnr.IN.gov.

SENIOR LUNCH

Huntington Master Gardeners, Sharon Ernst and Greg Sweetland will be the speakers at the Aug. 4 seniors lunch at the Salamonie Interpretive Center.

Individuals age 50 or above are invited to hear about new areas that the Master Gardeners have developed and improved in the Salamonie Interpretive Center Gardens.

The program kicks off with the meal at 12:30 p.m. The meat dish will be provided. Seniors should bring a dish to pass, their own table service, and $1 donation to help defray the cost of the provided meat dish.

After sharing information about the gardens' wonders and showing sample plants, Ernst and Sweetland will invite those who choose to walk outside to a guided tour. They'll view the new vegetable garden and native plants area, among other areas of beauty.

Those interested should register by calling UWIS, (260) 468-2127, or visiting the interpretive center, 3691 S. New Holland Rd., Andrews, 46702.

The interpretive center and gift shop's hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. This barrier-free building features exhibits, floor-to-ceiling windows in the wildlife viewing area, and staff to answer questions.

The center is in Lost Bridge West Recreation Area, Highway 105, western Huntington County.

For more information on other UWIS programs, see dnr.IN.gov/uwis.

FAMILY EXPLORATION

Nature's Tales and Trails and Family Exploration Packs, a new self-guided program that bridges the gap between the Salamonie Interpretive Center's monthly preschool program and its day camps for older kids, is available at the facility.

The program presents a new theme each month, with activities to help 4- to 8-year-old children and their parents or guardians explore the grounds of Salamonie Reservoir.

Each month a different nature theme and new location at Salamonie Reservoir will be highlighted. When visiting the property, participants will be able to check out a backpack filled with the tools and supplies needed for a fun parent-and-child learning experience. The backpack is checked out at the Interpretive Center for a few hours or most of a day, then returned when exiting. A $5 fee for the year includes an exploration journal with directions, mission tasks, extra activities, and patches for the child to earn along the way.

On top of the these monthly, participating children will adopt-a-spot at Salamonie to take care of throughout the year. A binder with suggested places to mark as your child's volunteer adopt-a-spot will be available when parents sign up their child. NAP CREDIT

Huntington County Habitat for Humanity (HCHF) was recently awarded $25,000 in donor tax credits through the State of Indiana's Neighborhood Assistance Program (NAP). NAP Tax Credits are administered by the Indiana Community and Housing Development Authority and are designed to aid Indiana's non-profit agencies in attracting new donors or increasing donations of existing supporters by providing donors with the incentive of a tax credit against their state income tax liability. HCHF will make the tax credits available to individuals, businesses or organizations on a first-come, first-served basis. HCHF plans to sell all $25,000 in tax credits by September 30, 2008. The NAP donations will be used to build and rehabilitate simple, decent, and affordable houses to benefit low-income residents in Huntington County.

Indiana residents who support Huntington County Habitat with a financial gift of $100-$50,000 may be eligible to receive a Neighborhood Assistance Program (NAP) Tax Credit from the State of Indiana. These tax credits are worth 50 cents on every dollar; which means the donor will receive 50% of your contribution toward your Indiana Income Tax liability. If eligible, you may also take a regular deduction on your federal income tax.

To take advantage of NAP Tax Credits or for further information, please call Steve Miller, Executive Director, Huntington County Habitat for Humanity at 260.356.7425, or email hchabitat@onlyinternet.net.

Example: Your gift: $1,000.00, Minus NAP Indiana tax credit: - 500.00, Minus Federal deduction (assuming 31% rate): - 310.00, Equals an actual out of pocket expense of: $190.00. Please consult your tax preparer for exact figures concerning your NAP Tax Credit

Quick NAP Facts:

NAP tax credits are distributed on a first-come, first served basis

Eligible donors any person, business, or organization that has an Indiana income tax liability

Minimum eligible donation is $100

Credits must be claimed for the taxable year of the contribution

NAP tax credits may only be applied against your Indiana income tax liability

The credit is against your total state income tax owed up to the amount of your tax liability; it is not a deduction in your adjusted gross.

TOOTH TIPS

By: Dr. Kevin J DeaKyne DDS, PC
KIDS, SODA POP & TOOTH DECAY

We have become a "Soda Junkie" Society. In 2000 15 billion gallons were sold. That works out to at least one 12-ounce can per day for every man, woman and child! How does the soda give you cavities? Sugar in your soda plus bacteria in your mouth equals acid. Acid attacks your teeth. Each attack last about 20 minutes. Statistics for soda with acidity (lower number is worse) and sugar content:

Top 7 Acidity (ph) 7 is neutral	Top 7 Highest Sugar
1. Pepsi 2.49	1. Grape Minute Maid 11.9 tsp
2. Coke 2.53	Orange Slice 11.9 tsp.
3. Orange Minute Maid 2.80	2. Orange Minute Maid 11.2tsp
4. Hawaiian Fruit Punch 2.82	3. Mountain Dew 11.0 tsp
5. Squirt 2.85	4. Barq's Root Beer 10.7 tsp
6. Diet Pepsi 3.05	5. Hawaiian Fruit Punch 10.2tsp
7. Diet Coke 3.39	6. Pepsi 9.8 tsp
	7. Coke 9.3 tsp

60% of all public and private middle schools and high schools nationwide sell soda pop (Elem. Schools?). This has led to drastic increases in tooth decay in kids (and adults) along with other possible health problems including obesity, caffeine dependence, and weakened bones. We can reduce the chances for tooth decay by drinking soft drinks in moderation. No sipping for extended period of time. Ongoing sipping prolongs sugar and acid attacks on your teeth. Use a straw to keep sugar away from your teeth. Drinking more water to dilute sugar and acid. (It's better for you anyway!) Some other ways to help reduce decay is good brushing and flossing habits with regular checkups and cleanings at your dentist.

OLDEST MALE

Harvey Hite was born on November 15, 1897 to John and Lydia (Jones) Hite, which makes his present age 109, to be 110 in November. He is believed to be the oldest living male in the state of Indiana.

Harvey was born into a family of farmer and continued in that vocation for most of his life. He lived in Rock Creek Township, Huntington County, until moving to Liberty Center, Wells County, in 1936.

Soon, Harvey was joined by five brothers and four sisters making the family complete. They were Claude (Virginia), Howard (Isabelle), Roy (Bernice), Chester (Fawn), Robert (1st - Esta, 2nd - Martha), Cleo (Elmer) Brown, Cora (Ed) Keplinger, Opal (Allen) Anson, and Kathleen (Dale) Campbell.

Harvey was educated in a one room school house with one teacher for several grades in Rock Creek Township. Then he went to a district school, the township schools and now we have the enormously large school of today which include all of the township school of yesterday.

The sports at that time were softball, baseball and basketball. He saw his son John Burl Hite become a star basketball player for Rock Creek. They know nothing of all the different sports of today which take up a lot of younger lives. Today they do not know the freedom of time that people of that generation know.

Their spare time, if they had any, was enjoyed by spending time with family and friends. They had to produce their own entertainment. The old standby of marbles hide and seek, kick the can, homemade rope swings from trees, races they enjoyed at gatherings and of course spending time with their animals.

Harvey has seen the many changes in farming. He began with the walking plows with horses, to plows with seats, tractors with metal wheels, than rubber tires. He has seen the age of coal and wood burning threshing machines and saw mills, to the gasoline engines, and now to the huge, expensive farming equipment of today.

Transportation has gone from walking to horse and buggy, to gas engines of simply made cars. Harvey saw the advance from the small inexpensive cars, which could only go a few miles and the progressing to the cars of today. He saw new roads built, tracks laid for interurban, to trains for hauling materials and ones for transporting people for long distances. He saw the airplanes begin to fly, and continue to get larger, and the huge rockets explode into the universe then return to earth.

Harvey has seen the wars from the past, from World War I, to World War II, and then the many wars and conflicts of modern day, which continue to change the world and make it seem so much closer together. They have made our world which once extended has a hard time seeing and hearing and her mind is not as sharp as it once was. It took her a while to figure out who we were. As we sat and talked, she made a profound statement that has me writing, "Live while you can!"

When we are surrounded by clutter, we allow stuff to suck the life right out of us. We are not dead but we sure are not living our lives to the fullest. The clutter keeps us locked behind closed doors. We live in fear that someone will find out our dirty little secret. I have known instances when emergency services were not called because they would not be able to get a gurney into the house. There are other times when a couple would not go on vacation because they could not allow anyone in the house to care for their cat. These are the extremes.

I want to look at what happens with just our daily living. We spend more time searching for things than we do loving our family. We don't have people over because it is too hard to get the house presentable. Our children play at someone else's home. When our family asks us to do something fun; we make excuses because the laundry needs doing or the dishes need washed. Even if you do go; you don't have fun because those things are going to slap you in the face when you walk through your door. How sad is that!

We have allowed stuff, our lack of routines and our perfectionism to keep us from living! We have become a slave to this way of life. We know no other way to live. I want to help you break these bonds of slavery to clutter and perfectionism. I want you to have the freedom to invite people over or go on vacation without worry. I want you to live your life to the fullest and follow your dreams.

I want you to live your life to the fullest. Finally Loving Yourself is the key to open your shackles to a new life.

My garden is rather small and I plant rows close together and always suffer before the summer is over as it looks like Tarzans jungle; but I do get quite a bit of veggies either to freeze or can from it, and it sure tastes good in the winter months, so I guess it is all worth the time spent and not to mention the savings on the grocery bill. As I have mentioned before my mom always insisted we have 6 or 7 hundred jars of food canned for winter besides the bushels of potatoes put away in the cellar. That was a lot of work and many a late night staying up in a hot kitchen waiting for the last canner full to be thru processing. She always used the copper wash boiler to process the jars with so we could do several more at a time than if we used the canner. Then if it happened to be wash day the next day we had to get the hot water emptied out and refill it with the good clean rain water and have it ready to lite the stove the next morning for hot water to do the washing. Those days you did the wash not the "laundry" and it was out of bed early and pump more water to fill the tubs for rinsing the clothes. I have pumped many hundreds of gallons of water in my youth and I really don't miss that part when I do "my laundry" on wash day. Some of the "good ole days" I don't really miss, but then there was the days of fun times and we kids had our share and have good memories of many things.

With the summer squash and zucchini being very great in quantity now I think of getting a few loaves of zucchini bread made and for the freezer. I share a couple recipes with you for the bread and a very good pie recipe that tastes like sugar cream pie. I had lost the recipe and thanks to Jeff Daugherty I now have it again

Zucchini Bread

1 ½ cup flour, 1 cup shredded zucchini, ¾ cup honey, ½ cup nuts, ½ cup raisins, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, 2 eggs, ½ teaspoon soda, ½ teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 cup oil.

Beat eggs and oil, add honey and mix well, next add the sifted dry ingredients and last fold in the zucchini, nuts and raisins.

Pour into lightly oiled loaf pans and bake at 350 for 1 hour.

Zucchini Pie

1 cup shredded zucchini, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup milnot, 1 egg, 1 ½ tablespoon margarine, 2 tablespoon flour, ¼ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Cook the zucchini in a small amount of water till tender or about 10 minutes, drain well put all the ingredients in a blender to puree and pour into an unbaked pie shell, sprinkle a bit of cinnamon on top and bake at 400 for 15 minutes and reduce the heat to 350 for ½ hour. This pie freezes well, just warm it in the oven before serving.

Enjoy summer!

from about 10 to 15 miles to thousands of miles. We once knew our neighbors as people who lived close, to the people who are now on the other sides of the world. He was fortunate enough not to have to serve in any of these uprising even though he loved his country.

Harvey married Edith Boyer from Liberty Township on April 27, 1918. They were blessed two sons and one daughter, John Burl, Charles Dean and June Hite. During these years, they saw the telephone come into operation and the battery operated radios and finally electricity when the REMC came to their area.

They moved to Liberty Township, Wells County, in 1936. He continued to farm except for a short time when he worked at the Esty piano factory in Bluffton. Along with farming, he raised pigs, chickens and cattle. They survived mostly on their crops, gardens fruit trees and the meat produced from their animals.

Church was always a big part of their lives. They went to Plum Tree Christian, then to the Liberty Center Methodist and later to the Brethren Church in Huntington.

After most of his family was gone and he decided it was time to slow down a bit, he moved to Raintree Apartments in Warren, in 1992. Even though it was quite a distance to downtown Warren, he continued to walk there every day until after he was 100 years old.

Because most of his family is buried in the Mitchell Cemetery on the outskirts of Warren on State Road 218, he felt it was his obligation to be its caretaker for many years. He kept it cleaned and mowed to perfection until his health caused him to step down.

In 2006 he moved into Heritage Points, a United Methodist Memorial Home Community. He is still active and works in the ceramics and sewing department and sandpapers wood for the workshop where they produce many wooden articles.

He is survived by one daughter, June (Mrs. James) Burton of Fort Wayne, Indiana and one sister Kathleen (Mrs. Dale) Campbell, Sebring, Florida. He also has seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He attributes his long life to never smoking or drinking, hard work and staying active. He remembers his grandparents as Perry and Nancy Jones and his great-grandfather as Elijah Mitchell, 1761 to 1847 as the only known soldier of the American Revolution Ware buried in Huntington County.

Mitchell was honorably discharged in July 1781. Born in Virginia on March 6, 1761, he died in Warren, Indiana on August 1, 1847 and is buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery.
