Thought for the Week: Learn to pause ... or nothing worthwhile will catch up to you. Doug King

CRAWLEY DUO

August 22, 2002 at 2:00 p.m. will be another concert in the Fine Art Series presented by the United Methodist Memorial Home in the Applegate Chapel.

Doug and Debra Crawley have been featured together and separately in concerts musical theater, opera and recitals in venues across the United States and abroad. They have been seen and heard on national television and radio broadcasts and have received acclaim from audiences and critics alike. Together they have appeared in numerous musical theater revues of works by Rodgers and Hammerstein, Lerner and Lowe, Kern and Hammerstein, Andrew Lloyd Webber, and others. They have sung for the WHAS Crusade for Children Telethon; a national tour and Dallas Public Television broadcast of Menotti's The Telephone; a Dallas Public Radio broadcast of Vaughan William's Hodie; the world premiere performance, nationally televised broadcast, video and audio recordings of Beloved Thief (Levit); an internationally released world premiere video recording of Two from Galilee (Sterling); and the Dome Theatre Christmas Concert, narrated by Jeremy Irons, in Brighton, England. Recent and upcoming engagements include return engagements with WHAS TV, Palm Beach Symphony, Louisville Orchestra, Lexington Philharmonic, and concert tours of Greece, Brazil, Israel, and England.

DAYCARE EXPANSION

Christie Bell, owner of ABC-123 Daycare in Warren, announced that she will be opening a new daycare. "The expansion allows us to offer child care on all three shifts as well as a separate preschool program." Bell has provided licensed childcare in her home for 8 years and looks forward to moving into the newly remodeled facility.

The preschool program will focus on kindergarten readiness according to guidelines by the Indiana Department of Education. Any preschooler in the area can attend and is not required to be enrolled in childcare at ABC-123

Daycare. Children age 2 and 3 will go on Mondays, Wednesdays, and every other Friday while the 4 and 5 year-olds will go on Tuesday, Thursday, and alternate Fridays. Class times are from 9:30 am - noon. Children will learn through a variety of activities and field trips. An enrollment fee will cover the cost of materials for the year as well as reserve your child a spot for fall registration.

In addition to the preschool program, parents may want to take advantage of the expanded child care hours, including 2nd and 3rd shift. The new 24' x 30' facility will be structured in learning centers such as small and large motor skills, a dramatic play area to encourage fantasy skills, a reading center, and a special infant area. Access to a computer and age appropriate software will allow children to become familiar with technology they may not have in their homes. Guest speakers will be invited in addition to field trips to further expand the children's interaction with the outside world. Children will be given supervised outdoor playtime and free time to develop their social skills with one another.

As a licensed facility the staff not only meets minimum state regulations including CPR, 1st Aid and Universal Precautions but also meet the criteria for accepting CCDF vouchers including criminal history checks as well as drug testing for illegal substances. Christie and her assistant Jennifer Ervin are attending child Development Associate (CDA) classes that will prepare them for a competency assessment in 13 functional areas as defined by the Council for Professional Recognition. This is a national standard that is the basis for quality child care skills. Another national recognition that Bell is working toward is the National Association for Family Child Care Accreditation. This is a voluntary certification program that recognizes 6 standards of quality in the child care environment. Professional development for these programs require at least 120 hours of training in addition to self-assessment in order to reach the highest quality of care possible. Corrinna Fishbaugh will work as a helper and substitute in the daycare to allow Bell and Ervin time away as needed to attend classes. Not only is Bell learning about child development and quality child care through classes, but she is sharing a lot of what she had learned so far by becoming a mentor for the Huntington Child Care Network. As a mentor she will work one on one with new providers to help them establish a child care business.

For more information about ABC-123 Daycare or Preschool, call (260)375-3085 or (260)375-3024.

PHYSICALS AT SALAMONIE

Salamonie student athletes and their parents will want to attend two important meetings on Monday, August 19 at Salamonie School.

Local doctors will be at Salamonie beginning at 5p.m. to administer physicals to students in grades 5-8. The free exam is for students who plan to participate on any athletic team at Salamonie. Students must have a physical on file to participate in athletics. Students should bring the physical form that was sent home during the last week of school. Only Salamonie students may participate in the Salamonie physical program.

Students who will be participating in cross country, football, cheerleading, or volleyball may stay after school until the physicals begin. All other students need to ride the bus home and then return with a parent.

That same evening, parents of student athletes are urged to attend an important meeting beginning at 5:30. Assistant Principal Brady Smekens will outline expectations for student athletes, review the schedule for each season, and seek input from parents. For more information, contact the Salamonie School office at 375-3434 or 356-8995.

RODGERS & HART REVIEW

A summer season replacement, The Pulse Opera House, Warren, is pleased to announce the opening of "Rodgers & Hart: A Celebration" August 23. This musical review is in honor of Richard Rodgers' 100th year anniversary. Rodgers and Hart collaborated on 31 Broadway shows, 10 films, and 550 songs.

"There are times when an opportunity presents itself and you just can't it turn down," states Cynthia Smyth-Wartzok, Creative Director. Originally set to run "Forever Plaid," The Pulse found themselves with a perfect cast to perform the review. Even as the season was being planned, The Pulse toyed with doing "Rodgers & Hart: A Celebration." After auditions for "Forever Plaid" it was an easy decision to make the change. "We had the voices. We had the mix," states Smyth-

Wartzok.

Rodgers & Hart promises a relaxing summer evening with music you know and love. Loni Christiansen, who teaches vocal performance in Wabash, is the musical director for the show. Cynthia Smyth-Wartzok is providing her talented stage direction to round out the performance.

Join The Pulse Opera House for a musical evening. The review runs August 23-24-29-30-31, September 5-6-7. All shows begin at 8:00 pm. The lobby opens at 7:00 pm. For reservations call the box office at 260-375-7017 or visit the www.pulseoperahouse.org. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under.

MEMORIAL DAY WEBSITE COMPLETE

The Veterans' Office announced today that the Memorial Day 2002 website is completed and ready for use.

The website has a page for each of the 136 veterans who were honored this past May 27th at the First Church of the Nazarene. Each page contains the deceased veteran's name, rank, date's of service, a brief summary of their time in the military, date of death and survivors.

Most pages also contain a picture of the veteran taken while they were serving, a more recent picture, a picture of the person who accepted the certificates at the Memorial Day program, and graphic representations of the medals and decorations received by the veteran during their time in the military.

Veterans' Service Officer, Tom Applegate, invites everyone who is on the internet to visit the site at www.huntington.in.us/county/veterans. After arriving at the home page, click on Memorial Day 2002, then The Honorees, then the name of the veteran.

Comments and suggestions welcome at the Veterans' Office, 358-4863

KUDOS, KICKS & KARATS

DEAR EDITOR,

The Youth Services Bureau of Huntington County desperately needs the community support with our 7th annual "Tools for Life", school supply campaign. Last year we provided 450 children and youth with needed school supplies. Historically, the donations, both of supplies and money, have kept up with the demand. However, so far this year that is not the case. There are several factors that are playing into this. First, the amount of school supplies that each student needs has increased drastically. This makes it harder for the families to purchase their own supplies, let alone purchase extra for the collection barrels. This also means that even if our numbers did not increase, the demand for donations increases. Secondly, the amount of donations are down. For those who have donated we are extremely grateful.

This is one of the most exciting services we offer each year. To see the looks on the faces of the children picking up their new school supplies makes even the worst day become a delight. Please be a part of this worthwhile project. You can drop off your donation at one of the 4 collection barrels located at Wal-Mart, KMart, Walgreens or Family Dollar. Donations can also be dropped off at the YSB office located at 1344 Maple Drive, Huntington. Financial support can be made at the same location. Please mark your check school supplies. Your donation is tax deductible and a receipt can be provided at your request.

For more information about the Tools for Life or to sign up to receive supplies contact the office at 356-9681 or 1-800-298-5444
 On behalf of the hundreds of children-THANK YOU!

Sincerely,
 Jan Williams, Executive Director

WHAT TO DO BEFORE AND AFTER A DISASTER

Most people are not fully prepared to cope with disasters that damage property, destroy records, and interrupt income. These are the first steps:

- Check your homeowner's or renter's insurance policy to make sure you are adequately protected.
- Make a household inventory so you are prepared to file a claim. Take photos or videos, and save receipts for high-priced items. Store a copy in a safe place away from your home.
- Compile an inventory of credit cards and financial assets with company name, account or policy number, and value. Store it away from home.
- Have cash available through an easily accessible account for expenses.
- Always carry your health insurance and photo identification cards.
- Buy life and disability insurance.

After a disaster

- Contact relief organizations for immediate necessities.
- Contact your insurance agent to file necessary claims.
- Consult a professional to review your financial situation.
- Contact credit card companies to see if balances will be paid off.
- After receiving a settlement, put the money into a savings or money market account. Restore your normal lifestyle first, and don't make big financial decisions for three to six months.

HOMEOWNER'S INSURANCE: A WHOLE NEW GAME

Natural and man-made disasters have taken a tremendous toll on insurance companies. In order to stay in the business, most have had to review their standards on who to insure.

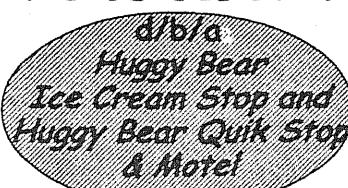

The word to policy holders: That claim better be for a significant disaster. If you make more than two or three claims in a given period, chances are that you'll no longer be insured.

Generally, an insurer will forgive one claim in five years without dropping coverage on a homeowner, according to The Wall Street Journal.

COOK OUT/ CARNIVAL

The Grace Alliance Church in Majenica will be hosting a Cook Out/Carnival on August 18, 2002 after church from 1 to 5 pm. Come join the fun.

CONCERT AT McNATT

Come to McNatt UMC on Sunday morning, August 18th to hear Lewis McCord and the King's Four.

The King's Four was originally an all-male quartet from Marion founded by Lewis McCord in the mid 50's. In the 70's the group was expanded to include family and spouses plus a few more.

The group signs Southern Gospel-style and has done many concerts, services and revivals in the area. They will have most of the morning service (which starts at 9:15) filled with their music which included harmonies in voice, keyboard, guitar and various other musical instruments, as well as, deaf-signing.

Everyone is welcome to attend! A free-will offering will be taken for the group. It should be good.

COUNCIL NOTES

The Van Buren Town Council held their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, Aug. 7, in the Council Room at Town Hall. President Tony Manry called the meeting to order at 7 p.m. with the Pledge to the American Flag.

A Public Hearing was held concerning a Planning Grant for the Wastewater Treatment Plant. Eighty days after the Grant is signed, another hearing will be held. There is also a 35 day data drafting period. Council voted to pursue the Grant.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as submitted.

Council voted to pay $27,259 to Linigers Contractors for their work on the water plant. It was also voted to pay $69,000 to Fanning-Howey Engineers.

A private party was interested in purchasing ground near the Wastewater Plant. Council was opposed to the sale.

An estimate of $2322 had been received for electrical service to the new Town Hall, expected to be built about the first of the year. Rex Collins was to be contacted about the project.

Council also discussed repair of a leak at the South Water Tower. Quotes are to be obtained for the job, with one quote to be for painting of the tank, and one for repairs.

After some discussion, Council decided to renew a matured CD for a period of three months, due to a few added expenses expected to arise due to the Water Tower problem.

Superintendent Webb presented his report. Water meters had been read in July, one meter changed, and no leaks reported.

Salt and chlorine had been ordered for the Water Plant.

Some streets had been patched.

Webb and the Council expressed their thanks to local citizens who had assisted with street sweeping in preparation for the Popcorn Festival.

A home on Park Street is expected to be torn down by Aug. 15. The next Council meeting will be Aug. 21.

TUITION ASSISTANCE

A conservative estimate of college costs for a full-time student runs from $10,000-$30,000; high cost colleges can run from $40,000-$100,000! Most parents and students think that scholarships are only for the students with excellent grades, low-income families, or the athletically inclined. A small example of the numerous scholarships available to students include: Handicapped Student Scholarships, Members of a Church Scholarships, Scholarships for "C" Students, Veteran Children's Scholarships, Scholarships for Minorities and much, much more.

Though the majority of scholarships are from the Federal Government and are merit and/or need-based, billions of dollars are available to students from private sector scholarships. Much of private sector financial aid goes unused because the parents and students do not know how or where to apply.

There are organizations that have spent hundreds of hours in research locating scholarship sources. The U.S. Commission for Scholastic Assistance - College Bound is such an organization and supplies the public with over 900 different private scholarships sources. The scholarship list include the scholarship names, addresses, application deadlines, summaries about the scholarships and the amount the scholarship will pay your child.

Many scholarships pay the entire tuition; others can be applied towards tuition, living expenses, and/or other fees. Most scholarships can be used at junior colleges, career and vocational schools, 4 year colleges, graduate schools, medical and law schools.

For information on obtaining these scholarship lists, send a self-addressed, stamped, business size, #10, envelope to: The U.S. Commission for Scholastic Assistance, P.O. Box 668, O'Fallon, W 62269.

ANNOUNCES NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Bluffton Regional Medical Center is pleased to announce that Vicki Hanselman, Vice President of Management Services, has been named Chief Operating Officer (COO) for the company. She replaces Tom Clark, who became CEO of the organization in late June. As COO, Hanselman is responsible for day-to-day operations and for directing, supervising and coordinating activities of hospital departments.

Hanselman has been an associate of the Medical Center for fifteen years and worked for five years prior to that at the former Wells Community Hospital. She holds a master's degree in business administration from Indiana

Wesleyan University, a bachelor of arts degree from DePauw University and an associate in risk management designation. She is also certified as a professional in health care quality and is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Hanselman's professional career began in Oklahoma as a social studies teacher. In the early 1970s, she worked in Washington, D.C., first for E. Ross Adair, 4th District, Indiana, in the United States House of Representatives and then as a staff assistant in the presidential appointments office of the White House.

In 1981, she became staff educator and then quality assurance coordinator at the former Wells Community Hospital. Hanselman is also known for her many years instructing expectant parents in preparation for childbirth (Lamaze) techniques. In 1987, she became quality assurance coordinator for the former Caylor-Nickel Medical Center. During the 1990s, her role expanded to include quality management, risk management, compliance and managed care contracting as well as supervision of medical staff services, health information management services, utilization management, staff development, social services, and the patient representative program. Hanselman has served on various hospital committees including the Medical Executive Committee, Quality Council, Safety Committee and others.

Hanselman has also been involved in a variety of community organizations over the years. She is a past member and past president of the Wells County Foundation board of directors and currently serves on its strategic planning committee. She is a past member of the Northern Wells Schools board of trustees and Foltz Literary Club. She is a member of First United Methodist Church in Bluffton and is married to Judge David Hanselman. They have three children and two grandchildren.

"Much of my experience has involved measuring and improving quality and I'm applying the principles learned to this new position," Hanselman states. "Making things better for our patients, their families, the physicians who practice at the hospital and the associates who work here is our goal and can only be accomplished through a team effort."

"We have a great team in place at Bluffton Regional," she adds. "I look forward to serving the needs of our community in even better ways in the future."

FARM SEMINARS

A series of informational seminars on the new farm bill will be held across northern Indiana on Aug. 22 and 26.

Sponsored by Indiana Farm Bureau and the Purdue Cooperative Extension Service, the meetings are open to anyone who is interested whether he is a Farm Bureau member or not. They will be held in Allen, Whitley, Elkhart, Marshall, St. Joseph and Porter/LaPorte counties, but farmers can attend any session in any county.

According to IFB District 1 Director Bob Herrold and IFB District 2 Director Mike Yoder, whose districts are hosting the seminars, the meetings will teach farmers how to evaluate the financial impacts of the different options offered under the farm bill.

Included in the meetings will be hands-on sessions by Purdue ag economist Allan Gray, who will demonstrate a spreadsheet program that helps farm program participants calculate their government payments. Since the Farm Service Agency was scheduled to send farmers their base acre numbers in early August, producers will be able to get a personal analysis based on those numbers.

The meeting schedule follows.

* Allen County. Aug. 22, 9 a.m., 4001 Crescent Ave., Fort Wayne

(the campus of IUPUI). Contact: Gonzalee Martin, Allen County Extension ag educator, (260) 481-6826.

* Whitley County: Aug. 22, 1:30 p.m., 4821 E 400 S, Columbia City (North East Purdue Ag Center). Contact: Rolla Parsons, Whitley County Extension ag educator, (261) 358-4826.

* Elkhart County: Aug. 22, 7 p.m., Elkhart County Extension Office, Goshen. Contact: Jeff Burbrink, Elkhart County Extension ag educator, (574) 533-0554.

* Marshall County: Aug. 26, 9 a.m., Cross Roads Academy, Plymouth, Ind. Contact: Ralph Booker, Marshall County Extension ag educator, (574) 935-8545.

* St. Joseph County: Aug. 26, 1 p.m., 5605 E. U.S. 31 South, South Bend (St. Joseph County Farm Bureau office). Contact: Phil Sutton, St. Joseph County Extension ag educator, (574) 235-9604.

* LaPorte/Porter counties: Aug. 26, 7 p.m., 11402 South County Line Road, Wanatah (Pinney Purdue Farm). Contact: Walt Sill, LaPorte County Extension ag educator, (219) 326-6808, ext. 271.

RED HATTERS HONORED

Thursday, 8 August, was a perfect summer day for the Red Hatter's latest venture. We entered our elegant float in the Van Buren Popcorn Festival parade and to our joy, were awarded the trophy for the Most Outstanding float in the parade! Our gifted Taya Decker created our theme sign, "Over 50 years and still popping" comparing it to the Festival theme of "30 years and still poppin' "The Real Elegant Dames gracing the float were: Jo Bowman, Mary Brown, Taya Decker, Addie Holm, Willadean Hethcote, Margaret Lee, Velma Lindstrom, Florence Mott, Lilly Nutter, Dee Pattison, Mary Palmer, Miriam Rice, Helen Stokes, Helen Strassner and our patient driver was Merritt Hethcote. We ended our eventful day in fellowship at a local restaurant before heading home. We deeply appreciated the wonderful reception we received from the Van Buren area folks; thanks for making our day so memorable!!

WINDOWS COMPUTER TIPS

Gain faster access to your drives, printers, programs, etc., by customizing your "Send To" menu

You can easily send files to floppy drives, printers, briefcases, and certain Windows programs by right clicking on it and selecting a destination from "Send To" menu. But, did you know that it's possible to add almost any kind of device and/or program to the "Send To" menu to make it easier to transfer files to most frequently used destinations?

1. Run Windows Explorer.
2. Select your Windows directory (C:\Windows for example). If you're running Windows 95, select "SendTo" folder. If you're running Windows NT, select "Profiles\Default User\SendTo" folder.
3. Now, simply create shortcuts inside the SendTo folder as usual to the devices and programs you want to have access to from the "SendTo" menu. For example, to add your WORK folder on your zip drive (D:\Work for example) to the SendTo menu:

* Right click inside the SendTo folder and select "New | Shortcut"

* Type "D:\Work" without the quotes and click on "Next"

* Type a name for the newly created SendTo item ("My Work Folder" for example) and click on "Finish"

Now when you right click on files, you'll see "My Work Folder" appear as an option in the SendTo menu.

Speed up Menu Display

You can use this tip to speed up the way menus display in Windows XP.

1. Click Start, click Control Panel, click Performance and Maintenance, and the click System.
2. Click the Advanced tab, and under Performance, click the Settings button.
3. Clear the Fade or slide menus into view check box, and then click OK.

Now when you bring up a collapsed menu, it will expand without delay.

Some tip you would like to see? I'll try and find it. Email Jane at jami@citznet.com

DEADLINE NEARS

The next deadline to register on the state's Telephone Privacy list is 11:59 PM August 20. This last update of the year will take effect October 1.

"There are 1.1 million phone numbers that are off limits to certain telemarketers, which is about 43% of the state's residential phone lines," Attorney General Steve Carter said. "After this next sign-up period, I anticipate that registrations will increase to reflect at least half of the state's residential phones."

Registration is available 24-hours a day, 7-days a week online at <http://www.in.gov/attorneygeneral> or by calling 1-888-834-9969. You can also stop by The Attorney General's booth in the Exposition Hall at the Indiana State Fair until August 18.

"I encourage Hoosiers attending the State Fair this week to stop by the Attorney General's booth in the Exposition Hall to register," Carter added. "It takes just a minute and already several hundred people have visited the booth to sign-up."

More than 1.1 million Hoosier phone numbers are registered on the list, which represents more than 2 million Hoosiers.

"It is clear to me that the law is working. I run into Hoosiers every day who share with me the changes that they have seen since enforcement of the law took effect earlier this year," Carter said. "There has also been a decrease in the number of complaints filed in our office which is one indicator that more and more telemarketers are complying with the law."

If you don't register for the list by August 20, don't worry. You can still get on the list because it is updated every quarter.

The law does allow four exceptions which include real-estate and insurance agents, newspapers that use their own employees to make the calls and charities that use employees or volunteers to make the calls."

Complaint forms can be downloaded online at the attorney general's website or requested by calling 1-812-355-5915

KIWANIS MET

At the first August meeting in the Knight Civic Center, Betty Yoder, president called the meeting to order. The group repeated the pledge and Lou Ann Shafer offered prayer. The group also sang a song with Betty Yoder at the piano. The selection was one to help us think cool, "Jingle Bells."

The minutes were read and approved. Since the treasurer was not present, there was no financial report. Brady Smekens did give a detailed report of the income from the Salamonie Festival projects. He was given a thank you and applause for his efforts.

A short discussion on the fall buffet was held. The date will be November 3, 2002. More details will be available later. Just mark your calendar for a Sunday buffet on the 3rd.

The next meeting will be held with discussion for activities at the Community Fall Fest.

Those present were Cheryl DeWeese, Jackie Huffman, Marilyn Morrison, Lou Ann Shafer, Brady Smekens, Joyce Sorg, Nancy Trout, Ned Trout, Betty Yoder, and Larry Yoder.

MORE PAGE 2

State Farm Mutual rejects any new customer who has filed even one claim with another insurer in the past three years. They have stopped writing any new policies in Texas, California, and Louisiana. In the mid-Atlantic region, they will drop coverage if a customer has two claims in three years.

Travelers Property Casualty generally drops customers who have filed three claims in five years.

Farmers Insurance Group uses state averages to decide which customers don't get renewed. In Missouri, for example, customers average one claim every 13 years. In Oklahoma, the average is one claim every eight years.

Allstate Corporation uses regional averages, but may not take people who made a claim in the past three years.

Customers who are dropped or denied coverage have the right to get a copy of their claim history, by calling (800) 456-6004, or by visiting www.consumerdisclosure.com.
