Thought for the Week: Strive for excellence, not perfection. H. Jackson Brown Jr.

AWARDED SAFETY GRANT & AED

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Huntington County is happy to announce that our Warren location has been selected as a recipient of the Culture of Safety grant.

Awarded by the National Council of Youth Sports, this grant has empowered our Warren location with a life-saving AED (Automated External Defibrillator) device generously provided by Zoll. The recent training session, conducted on Monday, equipped our staff with the essential skills to effectively use the AED, further enhancing safety measures within our facility.

We are honored to be selected for the Culture of Safety grant and grateful for the partnership with the National Council of Youth Sports. This initiative aligns perfectly with our mission to create a secure environment for our Club members and community.

VB DAY IN FLORIDA

Van Buren Day in Florida will be on the 3rd Friday of Feb, which makes it the 16th at Golden Corral, 322 US Hwy 27, Lake Placid, FL. I have a private room set up for us there for 11 AM. Feb 16th. The Golden Corral has changed to a soup, salad, and fruit bar with other food items on the menu. I made numerous calls to try to find a full buffet, but they would have been in Bradenton.

ACCEPTING DONATIONS

Farrville Community Church - We need to restock after a very successful Saturday giveaway! Transform lives with your kindness! Please donate gently used children's clothing, especially girls', and place them in trash bags under the awning at 11044 E 200 N, Farrville Community Church. Together, let's make a difference through our Youngster's Wardrobe ministry.

FROM CITIZENS

TELEPHONE

We are aware that many of you have been receiving your monthly CTC bills several days later than in the past. We do apologize for any inconvenience this may be causing. The company that prints our bills is located out of state and reports that the February bills were mailed from their postal hub on 1/31. Hopefully, this lengthy travel time through the mail system doesn't continue, but if it does, there is security in knowing that our bill due date is always the 15th of the month and that there is no late fee if your payment is received after that date. We appreciate your understanding.

VIRTUAL INHERITING

FARMLAND WORKSHOP

The Purdue Extension Land Lease Team invites those who have inherited or who might inherit farmland soon to attend the two-session virtual workshop, "Navigating Farmland Inheritance."

The workshop will be offered on Tuesdays, Feb. 27 and March 5 from Noon to 2 p.m. EST. Adapted from a University of Nebraska Extension program, the series will discuss best strategies for managing farmland.

After you inherit farmland, there are many decisions that need to be made. If you are not already farming, what do you plan to do with this land?

Kudos, Kicks & Karats

Well I hope everyone enjoyed a little bit of the spring weather we got. It was simply wonderful walking out of work and having the sun shine hitting your face. The older I get the more I like the warmer weather, even if it is so stinking hot at times. A little sweat is good for the skin. lol.

I've been thinking of the projects that need to be done this year and I think since Kylynn thinks she needs to get a job, I just might hire her. She's 14 so she thinks she needs money to blow but I'm thinking that she is still just under the age of being able to get a job. So, this Mamaw has plenty of work for her to do, I hope she likes to paint!! I have a fence that needs a new coat and a couple benches and two rooms that need painted. So it sounds like I got plenty of things for her to do this summer.

4-H has started so we will have to work this in to with projects. She has been taking Photography so I see lots of Jeep rides in store for this spring and of course I take a photo to for open class so I'm going to have to figure out a plan for that. I bought me a new camera that I'm dying to try out, just haven't had the time here lately to do. I also have to help with a foods project, so it sounds like we have plenty of things to do.

Papaw got stuck with a project this year, Bud, Kendra's fiancé, talked her into taking shotgun, so after great discussion she decided to try rifle instead. Ky's opinion on this was "Well I would like to save my shoulder" yep, it's going to get interesting. lol She is already in Bow and Arrow so; she has some idea of the process. I just hope they don't injure that shoulder, or I'll be doing my own painting. lol!!

This week is pig out week, Fat Tuesday then Valentines day. I think they got them backwards cause you can eat anything on Tuesday but come Valentine's day on Wednesday, so much for the steak dinner with your honey. We don't participate in lent but I have often thought about trying to do it, but I just don't think I can. I mean I can do Fishy Friday but, when you're a meat and potato eater, I just don't think I can do it. I am sure it would do me some good, but...

I've been getting lots of things bought for this wedding in August. I have invites to make and bouquets, corsages and boutonnières to make, centerpieces to do and whatever else comes. Her colors are really a challenge which are burnt orange, teal and ivory and her flowers are sunflowers and roses. At first I thought those colors were very odd but they do look good together. So, I have been buying flowers since fall when those burnt orange sunflowers were in the stores. She is going with a country flare to things so it will be pretty simple.

EDUCATION DASHBOARD

The Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) today presented the latest round of enhancements to Indiana Graduates Prepared to Succeed (Indiana GPS) – a performance dashboard empowering educators, families, communities and employers with a robust view of how Indiana students are building the necessary knowledge and skills—in all grades and in all schools.

“When we first launched Indiana GPS in December 2022, we shared that one of the guiding principles of this platform is that it will be nimble and constantly improving based on feedback,” said Dr. Katie Jenner, Indiana Secretary of Education. “Since the initial launch, we have received feedback from educators about the desire to be able to dig into and learn from other schools’ data about what’s working and where, and also, how their own students might benefit from implementing similar strategies. From parents and families, we heard a similar desire to be able to easily see multiple schools and the assets of each school. The enhancements we are releasing today are a reflection of that feedback.”

Enhancements include:

- * An additional filter for third grade reading data.
- Users may select “tested location” or “majority enrolled” on the 3rd grade literacy indicator.

“Tested location” is where students were attending when they took the test. This is how Indiana has historically displayed IREAD data.

“Majority enrolled” refers to the school where students spent the majority of the school year.

* A new map feature aimed at helping educators and families locate schools in a defined geographical area and/or a particular area of interest.

Users may search for schools by zip code, address, or city, and filter by additional categories such as grade levels served, school type, etc. By clicking on the star to the right of each school name, users can also “favorite” a school.

* A new comparison tool to learn more about the strengths of each school.

Once a user has selected two or more schools as “favorites,” they will be able to view and compare those schools’ performance on each of the indicators currently available on the dashboard.

In addition to the enhancements listed above, all indicators have also been refreshed to reflect the most recent data available. Similar to the process during the initial launch of Indiana GPS and subsequent enhancements in 2023, school leaders had access to an embargoed pre-release of these enhancements, as well as the new data. This provided an opportunity to ask questions and share feedback prior to the public launch. As a result of ongoing feedback from schools, updates continue to be made to the dashboard to ensure it is as comprehensive and as easy to use as possible.

The development of Indiana GPS follows the enactment of House Enrolled Act 1514 in 2021, which directed IDOE and the Indiana State Board of Education to develop a school performance dashboard that promotes transparency and multiple student measures, including longitudinal measures. The dashboard officially launched in December 2022, one and a half years in advance of the statutorily-required July 1, 2024 date.

The development of this dashboard is an iterative process and will continue to be improved over time, with new data and features added. To explore the dashboard, visit indianagps.doe.in.gov.

MACKINAC ISLAND & AGAWA CANYON TRIP DAY 5, PART 2

By Larry Ryan
By 11:35 am, our bus load of passengers cleared customs and re-entered the USA via Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan; the oldest (1668) city in the state. Our next stop was the Museum Ship Valley Camp. It was not a recreational camp site! A huge, 1917 freighter, SS Valley Camp, housed this museum. The ship roamed the Great Lakes for 50 years. We learned that it was powered by a 1,800 hp, triple expansion steam engine and hauled iron ore, coal, and limestone until 1955.

The ship's tour guide presented information about each section of the vessel, but one primary section had a large display focusing on the S. S. Edmund Fitzgerald. This water-worthy monster was launched in 1958 and set hauling records with 30,000 tons of iron pellets. However, it sank in Lake Superior on Nov. 10, 1975 during an unexpected, violent storm. There were no survivors! The last words of Captain McSorley were, "We're holding our own, going along like an old shoe."

Before leaving this venue, we learned that in 1622, Brule and Grenoble were the first Europeans to look upon Lake Superior. It was named gichi-gami by the Ojibwe Indians, meaning "great sea." In the poem, "The Song of Hiawatha," Henry Wadsworth Longfellow used the word, "Gitche Gumee." Also, Gordon Lightfoot used it in "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald" song. This largest lake's surface is 602 feet above sea level, 1,332 feet deep, and contains 3,000 cubic miles of water! I did not physically check these facts. Water was too cold! In comparison, Lake Huron's elevation is downhill at 578 feet. Soo Locks required.

After leaving the museum at 12:50, my wife and I preferred an outdoor, Main Street bench to reside and enjoy lunch. The small grocery/quick mart in Sault Ste. Marie once again served our needs, pickled carrots included. At 2:20 the bus departed from the parking space next to the Ojibway Hotel and quickly located I-75 South.

The roadside, evergreen trees and various bushes were paramount again. The standard fencing that accompanies interstate roads was hardly distinguishable due to the thick foliage. Passed "Castle Rock," an isolated, vertical rocky, limestone projection designated as a scenic lookout. Only $1 admission.

The 5-mile long, Mackinac Bridge, or "Mighty Mac" was traversed at 3:20 pm. Toll fee was paid by our tour director, but I helped by signing for the trip. Below us was the Straits of Mackinac. The bridge separates Lakes Huron and Michigan. The day was a sunny 69 degrees. With Michigan having so much shoreline, the state has 139 lighthouses. A museum tour guide factitiously told us that those people living in Upper Michigan are known as "Yoopers" and those residing under the bridge/Lower Michigan are the "Trolls."

After confusing me and motoring past exits to Vanderbilt and Atlanta, the bus driver left I-75 at Frankenmuth, Michigan. The Bavarian Inn Lodge, which opened in 1986, was our overnight destination. The inn also served us a buffet dinner. A single, entrée selection was unusual, but filling.

It was a long and tiring day. However, I had difficulty falling to sleep. The Bavarian beer at dinner did not help either. Too many tour highlights kept bouncing around in my brain?

Will be home tomorrow.

FLEXIBLE BSN PROGRAM

Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) is excited to announce the reconstructed online Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) program tailored for working Registered Nurses (RNs). This innovative program aims to provide flexibility and convenience to individuals who are already licensed as RNs, allowing them to elevate their nursing career in as little as 12 months while balancing work and life commitments.

The 12-month program is divided into 4 terms, including breaks with 8 core classes (30 credits) and additional general education requirements.

The estimated time commitment is about 10 hours per week, depending on the student. Classes are delivered with diverse learning opportunities including discussions, quizzes, interactive activities, videos, and learning games.

The only admission requirement for the program is an unencumbered RN license. Completion of the program offers advancement in a nursing career through positions like shift leader, charge nurse, staff nurse, or further education like MSN or DNP program tracks.

Career projections for nurses holding a BSN is robust with more than five million unique job postings and over 60,000 employers actively recruiting nationwide. The median national salary for an RN with a BSN is $81,300.

The RNBSN program offered through IWU is unique in its faith-based approach for academic and personal growth with professors who are highly qualified with practical healthcare experience. Our professors become mentors who support student success. For more information on completing a BSN in as little as 12 months, visit www.indwes.edu/nursing.

Steven A. Wagner, 70, of Poneto, passed away at his home on Feb. 5, 2024.

He was born on Nov. 23, 1953, to Victor and MaryAnn Wagner in Ft. Wayne. After Steve graduated from Brebeuf Jesuit High School in 1972, he went on to study Biology at Wabash College. In 1973, Steve met Nancy Carroll and they were married in Ft. Wayne in 1975. They went on to have four sons, who benefitted from his intentional mentorship, coaching, soft-spoken advice, and dry sense of humor.

After an illustrious academic and athletic college career, Steve moved to Wells County in 1976 to begin his teaching career at the new Bluffton Jr./Sr. H.S. During his teaching tenure, he was selected as a Fulbright Scholar and instructed for a year at The Hundred of the Who school in Rochester, Kent, England. Steve taught biology at Bluffton until 1995 until he accepted a position as director of guidance at Southern Wells Jr./Sr. High School. He also held three Master's degrees from Ball State and IPFW. Steve's influence on colleagues and students was unmatched, and he was greatly missed following his retirement in 2020.

Steve was a devout parishioner at St. Joseph Catholic Church, a constant Steve was preceded in death by his parents, Victor and MaryAnn; parents-in-law, James and Ann Carroll; sister, Vickie Oslos; and sister-in-law Marilyn Wagner.

He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Nancy; his sons, Joshua (Megan), Benjamin (Jennifer), Peter (Laura), and Samuel; grandchildren, Justin, Abigail, Gabriel, Adrienne, Scarlett, Ainsley, Oscar, August, and Owen; his siblings, Richard (Liz) Wagner, Diane (Wendell) Walls, Daniel (Joyce) Wagner, and Donald Wagner; sister-in-law Susan (Thomas) Dunlap; brothers-in-law David (Julie) Carroll and Jimmy Carroll; and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11 a.m. Monday, Feb. 12, 2024, at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Bluffton with Father David Violi celebrating mass. Visitation will be held Monday for one hour prior to the service at the church.

Burial will follow mass at St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery in Bluffton, Indiana.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Steve's name to Bluffton-Southern Wells Dollars for Scholars or Family Centered Services and can be sent to the funeral home.

SOCIAL MATTERS

Ask Rusty – How is my Social Security Benefit Calculated?

Dear Rusty: I appreciate your recent article dispelling the myth that politicians have stolen Social Security money. As a CPA, I dispel this myth repeatedly to clients who falsely claim SS funds have been raided. But another thing I deal with often is how SS benefits are calculated. I know the formula for determining each person's benefit amount is complex, but I have had to explain numerous times that those who put the most into Social Security get the lowest rate of return and those who put the least in get the highest return based on the way the benefit formula is structured. I get tired of people complaining that monthly Social Security payments are higher for retired doctors and other highly paid individuals. Can you please explain how Social Security is weighted in favor of lower income workers? Signed: Tired of the Misunderstandings

Dear Tired: Please don't be frustrated. Because of the program's complexity, Social Security is prone to misunderstanding, and educating the misinformed is an important professional duty we share. Here's how each person's SS benefit is determined:

The first thing to know is that each person's SS retirement benefit is not based on their financial contributions to the program. Social Security's purpose is to provide a benefit which replaces a portion of the person's pre-retirement income, so the SS benefit is based on actual lifetime earnings, not on the payroll taxes withheld from those earnings.

Social Security has your lifetime earnings record (obtained annually from the IRS) and that record determines your "primary insurance amount" or "PIA." Your "PIA" is initially determined in your eligibility year (usually age 62) and is the amount you will get if you claim for benefits to start exactly at your full retirement age (FRA).

To develop your PIA, Social Security first adjusts (indexes) each year of your lifetime earnings (up to the annual payroll tax cap) to account for inflation. They then select the 35 inflation-adjusted years in which you earned the most, from which they compute your average monthly earnings over your lifetime (this is called your Average Indexed Monthly

We decided to do an appetizer bar for the reception so not sure how that's going to go but I need to find lots of room in my freezer. I have Tara in charge of that so she can work her magic and I'm sure everything will be just fine. i just haven't showed her the list of items yet, so she may kill me before it even gets started. lol

As I write this, tonight is the Superbowl and it's the 49'ers and the Chiefs so it will be a good game. I went with the chiefs, minus Taylor Swift, for the win. Patrick Mahomes is from a small town in Texas where my family lives, so I'll go with the hometown boy. He's a good quarterback, a little arrogant, but I think he can get the job done. As much as I hate to say it, but he is going to be the next Tom Brady, he's got it in him. So tonight will be a nacho bar at our house, maybe a few other things, and just sit back and enjoy the game, even though my Detroit Lions won't be there.

Have a great week and unfortunately it won't be like last week but it's getting ready for basketball tournaments so you know the weather won't be great.

Earnings, or "AIME"). They then break your AIME into three segments, the first of which includes a majority of - and possibly all of - your AIME. They then take a percentage of each segment and total those three amounts to determine your PIA. The first segment is the largest and 90% of that first segment contributes most of your PIA. Smaller percentages of the other two segments (32% and 15% respectively if your AIME is higher), are then added to the first computation to arrive at your full PIA - the amount you get if you start benefits in the month you reach your FRA. Note that since most of the PIA comes from the first large segment of each person's AIME, lower income workers get a higher percentage of their lifetime average monthly amount.

Since benefits are based on earnings, those with lower lifetime earnings do, indeed, get a smaller benefit than those with higher average lifetime earnings, but the percentage of pre-retirement replacement income lower income workers receive is higher than for those with higher monthly average lifetime earnings. The Social Security benefit for lower income workers is typically about 40% of their pre-retirement average monthly income, while those with higher lifetime average earnings may get a benefit as little as 20% of their average monthly pre-retirement earnings. In that sense, the Social Security benefit formula is progressive and weighted in favor of lower income workers. Nevertheless, albeit a smaller replacement percentage, higher income workers receive a higher monthly SS benefit because of their higher lifetime earnings. Even so, those higher earners did, indeed, contribute more payroll taxes from their higher earnings.

So, each person's SS retirement benefit amount is a percentage of their pre-retirement income. Coincidentally, those with higher pre-retirement income also contributed more to the Social Security program than did those with lower earnings. But their higher SS benefit amount is based on their higher pre-retirement earnings, not on payroll taxes paid from those higher earnings.

ASK SHIP

Q: My husband and I are getting older and having more health concerns. We have Medicare and Medicaid, but we want to maintain our independence at home as much as possible. Are there any benefits or services that can help us? I don't want to burden my family too much for help.

A: Beginning this Summer, 2024, a new program called Pathways, will be offered that may benefit you and/or your husband.

The Indiana Family and Social Services Administration, FSSA, will partner with experienced health plans to create a managed long-term services and supports program (LTSS). This will allow experienced health plans to coordinate these benefits with an individual's other benefits, such as Medicare and Medicaid. The program is for Hoosiers aged 60 and over who receive Medicaid or both Medicaid and Medicare benefits (Dual Eligible).

Many Hoosiers who join the program will be able to get long-term care at home. Individuals who meet the criteria and join Pathways can choose a health plan from one of the three contracted Managed Care Entities (MCE)—Humana, United Healthcare, and Anthem. That plan can help them get services and support to increase their independence with services like transportation to their doctor's office, help in making meals, home-health visits or adult day care centers.

Each qualifying member will have a care and services coordinator. These coordinators will help members get all of the benefits for which they qualify. Other services and support may be offered, depending on what the senior is qualified to receive. About 120,000 Hoosiers qualify for this program in Indiana.

Pathways is for Indiana Medicaid members who are:

- * 60 years of age and older
- * Eligible for a full-coverage aged, blind or disabled category (with or without Medicare)
- * Can be receiving long-term support services through Medicaid, including:
  - o Residing in a nursing or long-term care facility
  - o Are approved for an Aged and Disabled waiver
- * Can be on the Behavioral and Primary health Coordination Program

Qualified Medicaid recipients should expect to receive more information by mail this February. Those who in enroll in Pathways should begin receiving benefits in July, 2024. You can learn more about Pathways and even compare plans at www.in.gov/pathways.

If you have questions related to Pathways call the Indiana Pathways for Aging Helpline at 87-PATHWAY-4 (877-2849294). Or, visit www.in.gov/pathways/home/ You can also find us on

MUST-HAVE TECH

UPGRADES FOR YOUR LIFE

(StatePoint) Want to simplify your life, boost your productivity and work smarter? Incorporating some of the latest tech developments into your routine may be the answer. According to Authority Hacker, 77% of devices use some sort of Artificial Intelligence (AI), and 50% of consumers are becoming more optimistic about using the technology.

Check out some of the coolest technology upgrades you can make right now:

1. Boost Your Productivity: With so many distractions, it can be difficult to stay focused and productive in your personal and professional life. Cue AI to the rescue! The app RescueTime works silently on your computer or mobile device, recording how much time you spend on different programs or websites, and then creating a report providing insights into your productive time and distractions. If you struggle with organizing your email inbox, try SaneBox. It sorts messages for you and over time, evolves to improve your productivity. Apps like IFTT (If This, Than That) allow you to create automated commands to store files and things you need.

2. Upgrade Your Smartphone: Upgrading your smartphone will enhance security features, battery life, performance and the latest 5G network. Samsung just unveiled its latest S24 series and the new lineup is the first to leverage T-Mobile's uplink carrier aggregation. This means customers can get up to 90% faster uplink speeds than the previous Samsung lineup, making things like video uploads nearly twice as fast. The Samsung S24 series introduces Galaxy AI, with easy, real-time live language translations of voice and text, Circle to Search with Google, to help streamline your internet searches, and Generative Edit to perfect your photos. New and existing T-Mobile customers can get a Samsung Galaxy S24+ for free or up to $1,000 off any in the series with an eligible trade-in on the Go5G Plus or Go5G Next rate plans. Learn more at <https://www.t-mobile.com/devices/new-samsung-phone-updates>.

3. Smarten Your Home: From automatic door locks to smart plugs, thermostats and appliances, you can give your home a much-needed tech upgrade. Use smart plugs to control lighting in your home from an app, and a smart door lock with features like remote access and fingerprint ID so you can go key-free.

4. Enhance Your Network Experience: The network your phone relies on to access the latest technology may need an upgrade, and now there's a way to test out another wireless provider's network before making the switch. T-Mobile's Network Pass allows you and your family to keep your current wireless provider, phones and phone numbers and try out T-Mobile's network free for three months. You'll get access to T-Mobile's largest, fastest and most awarded 5G network and the ability to compare your network performance to pick the best wireless provider for you. The best part, it all can be done online via an app, without having to go into a store.

5. Give Visual Search a Try: Google, Amazon and Pinterest now allow you to use images to search for similar items or products online. You can even use this feature to translate text in different languages.

Ever feel like you're treading water? With so many apps, devices and features designed to streamline tasks and to-dos, adapting the latest tech can help you create a more productive life.
